Chapter 1 by Luke

Some people thought that aliens were just mythical beings. Well they were wrong. Our world has been infested with green slimy aliens. Now, there is only one squad that still remains.

Could this be the end of the human race?

Chapter 2 by Gounaitory

Or this is a new chance for all of us? Who knows... But all I can say is that we are not alone in this universe

Chapter 3 by Alasdair

Tom took his position on the flank his swety hands clutching a shotgun. No one spoke they just waited , it was so quite a pin drop could be heard. A low sound that resembled grinding metal signalled they were near, this is it Tom thought, the end. He sobbed silently.

Chapter 4 by intellikat

Over a scarred ridge dropped the heavy front end of an alien tour bus, its gleaming metal and shiny rubber assault tyres a stark contrast to the devastation surrounding it. The alien bus driver was grinding the gears as he shifted, trying to give the massive vehicle some torque as it rolled over holes and crumpled frames. Tom knew that behind the tinted windows and green curtains were his enemies, huddled behind their cameras, searching the vast plain for images to take home to their planet upon the... alien high command. He hated them and their lifestyle.
